Re: United States v. LaMorte et al., S 89 Cr. 742 (DNE) (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

I am the Assistant United States Attorney assigned to this matter. Defendant Jacob Moritz was recently arrested on the indictment in this case, and was presented in the District of Montana. Our Office has requested the Court's records of this case, which the Court's clerks retrieved from archives. Our understanding is that the Court must direct that the records remain at the courthouse, otherwise they will be sent back to archives. In light of the above-described development in this matter, we respectfully request that the Court order the records to remain at the courthouse, and not be sent back to storage.

Very truly yours,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney
